

WHISTLEBLOWING POLICY

1. INTRODUCTION

Reszon Diagnostics International Sdn Bhd (the “Company”) are committed to the highest standards of integrity, openness and accountability in the conduct of its business and operations as well as promoting and supporting a culture of honest and ethical behaviour, corporate compliance and good corporate governance.

This policy draws up the general guidelines that allows the employees of the Company and other stakeholders to report or disclose without fear of retaliation any improper conduct or wrongdoing within the Company.

2. SCOPE

Improper conduct or wrongdoing includes, but not limited, to the following acts and undertakings:

- Fraud (intentional or non-intentional);
- Misappropriation of assets;
- Criminal breach of trust;
- Illicit and corrupt practices;
- Questionable or improper accounting;
- Illegal or criminal offences;
- Conflicts of interests without disclosure;
- Misuse of Company’s properties or confidential information;
- Endangerment of employees’ and public’s health and safety;
- Acts or omissions which are deemed to be against the interest of the Company, laws, regulations or public policies; and
- Deliberate concealment of any of the above matters or wrongdoing.

3. REPORTING POLICY

Whenever possible, issues should be raised and dealt with through the normal reporting lines and procedures in the Company. However, where it is believed that the malpractice cannot be resolved through the normal reporting lines and procedures, or implicates senior levels of management within the Company and/or the employee's own employment may be jeopardised by raising the concern, then issues may be raised through alternative channels provided by this policy.

This policy does not replace the grievance procedures and/or disciplinary policies already in place but to provide additional avenues for employees or other stakeholders to report or disclose without fear of retaliation, any improper conduct or wrongdoing committed or about to be committed.

4. REPORTING IN GOOD FAITH

The Company expects employees and other stakeholders to report genuine concerns without prejudice, in good faith and on reasonable grounds.

5. THE WHISTLEBLOWER'S PROTECTION

A whistleblower under this Policy may be accorded with the necessary protection of confidentiality, to the extent reasonably practicable.

At Reszon, a whistleblower employee will also be protected against an adverse employment action (such as penalty, demotion, suspension or dismissal) and retaliation should he/she comes forward with the following: -

- disclosing any improper conduct or wrongdoing committed or about to be committed;
- reports what he/she believes constitutes a violation of any internal or external guidelines, rules and regulations of the Company;
- reports any fraud committed by staff, breach of the Company's Code of Conduct and Ethics, conflicts of interests or similar policy breach, if made in good faith;
- provides information or causing information to be provided in an investigation conducted in-house or externally by any regulatory agency or authority (such as the police, government agencies or ministries, Securities Commission, Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad and/or the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission); and
- participating in an investigation, hearing, court proceeding or other administrative inquiry in connection with any such report.

Any party that retaliates against someone who has reported a misconduct or wrongdoing in good faith may be subject to appropriate action, up to and including legal action, where applicable. However, protection under this Policy will not mean protection from disciplinary action (including termination of employment) arising out of false, frivolous, or baseless allegations made by a whistleblower knowingly.
